MCCARTER TO LEAD PANEL PRESENTATION ON INDUSTRY-FIRST C-PACE PORTFOLIO SALE

Panel to Discuss the State of Connecticut's Bellwether C-PACE Portfolio Sale Case Study

TRUMBULL, CT – April 29, 2013 – Sustainable Real Estate Solutions, Inc. \(SRS\), the industry leader in cloud-based building energy performance assessment, underwriting and proprietary benchmarking solutions today announced CEO Brian J. McCarter will lead a panel presentation at the Sunshine Backed Bonds™ Conference in New York City on May 2, 2014.

McCarter's panel will include Jessica Bailey, Director of Connecticut's Clean Energy Finance and Investment Authority (CEFIA) Commercial & Industrial PACE program and Bert Hunter, Chief Investment Officer for CEFIA.

The panel will discuss CEFIA's industry-first C-PACE portfolio sale which is expected to further accelerate the emerging C-PACE financing industry to fund capital intensive energy consuming equipment upgrades at attractive terms.

Brian McCarter, SRS CEO said "Session attendees will learn how CEFIA's C-PACE program has incorporated comprehensive underwriting practices that facilitate the standardization, predictability and scale that stakeholders demand to have confidence in energy efficiency and renewable energy investments. He added, "CEFIA's recent groundbreaking C-PACE portfolio sale has provided the industry with valuable lessons that should help accelerate C-PACE programs nationwide as the large scale adoption of energy efficiency investment in the commercial and industrial buildings segment gathers steam”.
